Documentation to include with the application:

- Official high school and college (if applicable) academic record (transcript of grades).
*College applicants who have previously submitted a final high school transcript do not need to resubmit it again but must provide a current college transcript. (If you are a current college Freshman then you'll need to submit your final high school transcript.)
- Record of leadership involvement in high school, college and community (examples: honors, awards, and evidence of leadership roles in programs such as 4-H, FFA, church, student government, etc.)
- An essay of up to 500 words regarding the applicant's plans for the future indicating reasons for applying for a Farm Bureau Scholarship
- Three current letters of recommendation from someone other than family members

Applicants will be scored and ranked as follows: 40% for scholastic achievement, 40% for leadership involvement in school and community, 10% for the essay, 10% for letters of recommendation. Applicants must be graduating or have graduated from a Volusia public school or home school. Only those achieving at least 90% on the judge's scorecards will be considered. High school and college applicants will be ranked separately. Applicants must be enrolled full-time in an accredited college or university and have a minimum of one year of family membership in Volusia Farm Bureau prior to applying. Scholarship money will be prorated on a semester basis and paid directly to the college or university with credit given to the student's account.
